ABOUT WELLSPRING

Wellspring Philanthropic Fund is a private grantmaking foundation dedicated to advancing the realization of human rights and social and economic justice for all people. Wellspring has offices in New York, NY, and Washington, DC. Wellspring's work is rooted in respect for the dignity and worth of every human being and is informed by the following beliefs:

- Social institutions and structures should promote the full realization of human rights and human potential and should be accountable to these ends.
- The rights of all people are advanced when the rights of the most marginalized and vulnerable peoples are protected.
- Social justice movements should employ means that are consistent with their ideals and should give agency to the people whose interests they seek to advance.
- As responsible stewards, we must strive to maximize the impact of our charitable investments.

THE OPPORTUNITY

Wellspring Philanthropic Fund seeks a Grants Management (GM) Associate. The GM Associate will be a frontline provider of the grants management function in support of a range of program areas. Specifically, the GM Associate will serve to backstop the full Grants Management team during high volume periods, requiring a high degree of flexibility and an ability to liaise effectively with a variety of team members and program staff. The Grants Management Associate is a vital member of Wellspring's operations unit, charged with monitoring a subset of grants for legal compliance and adherence to Wellspring's internal guidelines while maintaining supportive relationships with grantee partners and contributing to the GM team as a whole.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Frontline responsibility for the grants management life-cycle of a subset of grants and related information management including but not limited to the following:

- Confirm accuracy of grant entries in the grants management database (GivingData) for details such as purpose, projected grant amount, payment disbursement dates, etc.
- Confirm grant applicant legal status and appropriate grant structure prior to inviting applications
- Invite applications for funding on behalf of the program staff, communicating all necessary requirements and deadlines to the applicants
- Receive and file grant application materials in the grants management database and digital filing
- Review all grant applications for completeness and adherence to legal requirements and internal grantmaking guidelines, for both domestic and international grants including but not limited to lobbying restrictions and OFAC regulations
- Conduct due diligence reviews of applicants' organizational and financial capacity
- Manage communication with grantees regarding grant materials: missing application items, budget issues, etc., as well as answering questions about the application/grantmaking process
- Assign proposal review deadlines and review grant reports in grants management database, and notify the appropriate program staff of next steps
- Coordinate with program staff on grant and budget planning throughout the year
- Respond to questions about the foundation's grantmaking process and compliance needs from program staff and leadership, as well as grantees and other external partners
- Prepare reports on grantmaking activity, as requested
- Assist in training staff and grantees as needed on technology or policy issues and procedure changes related to grants management that affect them
- Work with Grants Management team on implementation of the department's strategic plan (including technology and process enhancement), requiring clear communication, attention to detail, and an ability to identify pain points in systems and processes.
- Perform other duties and responsibilities as requested.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Bachelor's degree or equivalent experience; minimum of five years of relevant, full-time work experience within the non-profit/philanthropy sector, (preferably in a grants management function)
- Excellent communication skills, with the ability to relate effectively to potential grantees and other non-profit professionals, staff, trustees and consultants
- Pleasant and supportive phone and interpersonal manner, customer service-oriented work philosophy
- Strong computer skills, including proficient use of the Microsoft Office Suite and experience with database and internet applications
- Ability to multi-task, prioritize, and follow through to effectively manage work and meet multiple tight deadlines
- Proficient with data management and manipulation, including an ability to identify discrepancies between different data sets and produce reports for relevant program teams as requested.
- Highly motivated self-starter with the ability to successfully work in a team environment
- Exceptional attention to detail and organizational skills
- Strong research skills, an ability to identify pain points in systems and processes, and a problem-solving orientation

- Ability to handle confidential information with complete discretion
- Positive attitude and a commitment to being part of an energetic, demanding work environment that requires flexibility
- A commitment to continued learning on issues related to race, gender, diversity, equity, inclusion, and belonging is required of all Wellspring staff as we value social justice as an organizational operating principle.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS (candidates without these experiences who are eager to learn are encouraged to apply):

- Knowledge of relevant IRS grantmaking regulations
- Experience with international grantmaking, including expenditure responsibility and OFAC compliance requirements
- Spanish language proficiency
- Knowledge of digital security (including recognition of phishing/spoofing attempts)

LIMITATIONS AND DISCLAIMER

The above job description is meant to describe the general nature and level of work being performed; it is not intended to be construed as an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties and skills required for the position. The team member may be required to perform duties outside of their normal responsibilities from time to time, as needed.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Salary range: $81,000-$95,000 based on experience.

Wellspring offers a very generous benefits package including payment of 100% of the health insurance premiums for employees (and 80% of the premiums for spouses, domestic partners and qualified family members). Wellspring also offers other benefits including life insurance, long-term disability protection, a group 401(k) retirement plan (with an employer contribution), support for continuing education, up to $5,250 in annual student loan repayment or college savings assistance for qualified dependents and is committed to providing transgender-inclusive healthcare.

Wellspring's Offices have returned to in-person work using a hybrid model. Staff are expected to be fully vaccinated against COVID-19 and to work from the office Tuesday - Thursday and have the option to work remotely Monday and Friday. To ensure the safety and well-being of our employees, we will continue to monitor the situation and follow the recommendations from the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.
